

Saying the words I am before a statement allows the words to be ingrained in your logical mind, allowing you to fully embody the statement. Use the ones that resonate with you, and leave what doesn't.

1. Say your chosen affirmations out loud now. Or select a couple to focus on during silent meditation.

2. Write 3-5 of these on post-it notes and place them around your space (office, car dashboard, bathroom mirror, refrigerator, etc.) to see and read regularly.

3. Use your journal to write out the affirmations you like and keep adding to your list.
